how the cow came to the Temple and the exact time when the cow was given to the care of Ramanujiengar, though the latter states that it was with him for 10 or 12 years. The milk obtained was being given to the Temple and it does not seem that the cow was allowed to graze in the Nanadakalle garden belonging to the Temple — On 19th June 1907, the cattle were sold by public auction under orders of the Sub-Divl. Officer and the sale has not been finally closed. Ramanujiengar prays that as nothing was being paid by the Temple for the maintenance of these cattle, one of the calves (3 or 2y) may be given to him gratis in return for the trouble taken by him. The Local authorities including the Dy. Commr recommend that in conformity with the practice obtaining in those parts, a calf may be allowed to be given to Ramanujiengar. From the above it is ascertained that as the sale was held subject to confirmation, no amount was realized recovered & credited to the temple fund.

Of the one cow that was gifted to the temple and the four calves that it gave birth to, 3 are since dead & one cow and one calf are living.

Mr. Ramanuja Iyengar wants that in conformity with the practice in vogue he should be allowed to take half the amount realized by the sale for having been looking in charge of the

Sir,

With reference to your docket no. 1119 of the 12th September 1907 calling for certain information in the matter of the law, belonging to the Sri Narayana Swami Temple at Melkote, being left in charge of one Kalyanikare Ramanuja Iyengar

I have the honour to state that the peshkar reports (in his No. 431 of the 13th September 1907)

(1) that there is no record to show when and how the Cow in question came to the temple.

(2) that it is not possible to find out the exact time when the Cow was given to the care of the said Ramanuja Iyengar.

(3) that the statement of Ramanuja Iyengar that two of the calves brought forth by the Cow died and that the two subsequent ones are living has to be given credit to; that the Cow in question was with Ramanuja Iyengar for 10 or 12 years.

to clear from this st

10-8-06, The milk obtained was being given to the temple and it cannot safely be said that the Cow was allowed to graze in the Nanadakatte garden

The peshkar further reports that the practice in vogue in those parts is that whenever a Cow, She buffalo, or a mare is given to the care of any one,

the number of young ones brought forth during the period goes to the owner of the said Cow the the remaining half to the person who took care of the same, and that the said Ramanujayyangar is entitled to one Calf, The Deputy Amildar recommends

the Same and the one mentioned officer supports his views.

In these circumstances I am of opinion that a Calf may be allowed to be given to the Ramanujier referred to.

I have the honor to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient Servant
